TRANSFER ON DEATH INFORMATION

- A Transfer on Death (T.O.D.) designation transfers ownership of shares to the registered owner's (owners') beneficiary(ies) upon death; provided that the above referenced investment(s) receive(s) proof of death and other documentation it (they) deem(s) necessary or appropriate.
- Until the death of the account owner(s), the T.O.D. beneficiary(ies) has (have) no present interest in, or authority over, the T.O.D. account.
- A T.O.D. designation will be accepted only where shares are owned by a natural person and registered in that individual's name or by two or more natural persons as joint tenants with rights of survivorship.
- Accounts registered to trusts, corporations, charities, and other such entities may not declare a T.O.D. designation because they are considered perpetual. These entities, however, may be listed as a beneficiary on a T.O.D. for accounts registered to a natural person.
- This form must not be used in conjunction with custodial held registrations. Under custodial held registrations, TOD designations of beneficiaries will be collected by the Custodian.
- A T.O.D. designation on an account will remain in effect until Total Income+ Real Estate Fund has confirmed any request to amend such designation. All written requests should be mailed to the address listed above.
- We require a guardian to be listed if a beneficiary (whether primary or contingent) is named but there are no fields to capture this.
- A T.O.D. designation and all rights related thereto shall be governed by the laws of the State of Missouri.
- A T.O.D. designation may be voided at any time by the above referenced investment(s), in its (their) sole discretion, if there is any doubt as to the validity or effectiveness of a T.O.D. designation.
- A T.O.D. designation will not be accepted from residents of Louisiana.
- A T.O.D. designation made by joint tenants with rights of survivorship does not take effect until the last of all multiple owners die. The surviving owners may revoke or change the T.O.D. designation at any time.
